WE DO JOB WORK

"I COME, THE HERALD OF A NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK."

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

TONICS, quickly and completely CLEANNES and ENRICHES THE BLOOD. Quickens the action of the Liver and Kidneys. Clears the completelon, makes the skin smooth. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce conslipation—ALL OTHER HOO MEDICINES DO.

DR. N. S. RUGGLER, of Marion, Mars., says: "I DR. N. B. Rittellan, et Mariem, Mars., exps. "Becommend Brown is from Bittern as a valuable temic for envirolong the blood and removing all dyspectic symptoms. It does not hart the treeth."

DR. R. M. Derrettle, Reynolds, Ind., says: "I have presented Brown is from Bitters in cases of envirols and though your litters in cases of envirols and though your litters in cases of envirols and the proved thoroughly satisfactory. Max War, Bruss, 25 S. Mary St. New Orleans, La., 25 St. White Provide Iron Bitters relieved me in a case of blood poisoning, and I heartily commend it to those precisions and appropriate the same of these precisions of the parties. Mr. W. W. MORARIAN Tuscumbia, Als., earn. "I have been treaded to not elicible and with Impure Blood and emption on my force two huttles of Brown's Iron Bitters effected a particle cips. I cannot apack too highly of the valuable medicine.

Genuine has above Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no ether. Made only by BROWN CREMICAL CO., I. VLTIMORE, MB.

GENERAL DIRECTORY.

STATE.

Governor-J. Procter Knott Lieutenant Governor-Jes. R. Hindman Secretary of State Jus. A. McKenzie. Private Secretary to Governor-C. Egbert Attorney General-P. W. Herdin.

Auditor-Fayette Hewell. Assistant Auditor-Charles S. Green. Treasurer-James W. Tate.

Clerk-James B. Hawkins, Sapt. Pub. Instruction-Jos. D. Pickett. Clerks-E. C. Went and E. D. Pickett. Register Land Office-George M. Adams. Deputies-T. H. Corbett, J. M. Unthank

Deputy Com .- Virgil Hewett. Clerks -J. A. Coons and H. F. Duncan.

Adjutant General—John B. Castleman. Clerk-Wickliff Chepman. Supt. Arsensl-W. G. Thompson

Com. Ag. Hor, and Statistics-J. F. Davis State Librarian - Mrs. Virginia Hanson. Clerk-Walker Peters. Inspector of Mines-C. J. Nerwood.

Public Printer & Binder-John D. Woods Penitentiary Warden-Jerry South. Deputy Warden-George Taylor.

COURT OF APPEALS. Tuomas H. Hines, W. S. Pryor, J. H. Lewis, W. H. Holt : Reporter, John Redman; Clerk Court of Appeals, Thomas J. Henry; Deputy Clerk, Sam. M. Gaines : Deputy Clerk Superior Court, Thomas G. Poore; Sergeaut, G. A. Robertson; Tipstaff, James McCauliff. SUPERIOR COURT. siding Judge, A. E. Richards; Judge

James H. Bowden, A. E. Richards, J.Q. Ward; Sergent, John M. Elliott; Tipstaff,

A. R. Boone, J. D. Young.

CONGRESSIONA Representative, Fourth District-Hop, A B. Montgomery.

STATE LEGISLATURE-SIN DISTRICT. Senator-Hon, Sam. E. Hill. Representative, Onio County-Hon, Jesse

COUNTY.

Circuit Court. Hon. Lucius P. Little, Judge, Owensboro, Hon. Joseph Noc, Attorney, Owensboro, Clarence Hardwick, Clerk, Hartford. Jno. P. Barrett, Master Com'r, Hartford. R. P. Hocker, Sheriff, Beaver Dam. Deputies-J. P. Gilmore, Fordsville; P. E. Hocker, Beaver Dam; J. M. Casebier, Rock port; J. L. Miller Hartford. Court convenes fourth Mondays in May

T. J. Smith, Clerk, Hartford. C. M. Pendleton, Attorney, Hartford. every month.

Quarterly Court. Begins on the third Mondays in January, April, July and October. Court of Claims.

and October.

Charles Bendrie, Surveyor, Bockport, I. W. Barnett, Assessor, Bartlord, L. P. Loney, County School Supt., Hartford,

Police Courts, Hantford, J. S. Gienn, Judge; W. H. Manzy, Marshal. Courts held 4th Monday in March, June, September and December. BEAVER DAM .- B. F. Yeweli, Judge ; Wm. H. Blankenship, Marshal. Courts neld first Saturday in January, April, July and Oct. Wise, Marshal, Courts held second Satur-CERALVO.-V. D. Fulkerson, Judge; J. S. Tilford, Marshal. Courts beld second Satur-MAMILTON,-J. W. Lankford, Judge; P. M. Brown, Marshal. Courts held third Satura January, April, July and October. ROLLPORT. - L. Reid, Judge; A. P. Howard, Marshal, Courts held first Thursday in January, April, July and October. Rosing.-J. J. Layton, Judge; no Marshal. Courts held first Saturday in January, April, July and October.

FORDSVILLE.—J. I. Harder, March 1, June 1, September 1, December 1. James Miller, March 2, June 2, September 2, December 2, BUFORD.—C. L. Fields, March 4, June 7, September 7, December 7, J. McKindley, March 3, June 3, September 3, December 3. HARTFORD.—R. A Sievens, March 5, June 4, September 8, December 8, J. D. Byers, March 9, June 9, September 9, December 9. Reckport.—R. Duncan, March 11, June 11, September 12, December 12, W. I. Rowe, March 10, June 10, September 10, December 10. CROMWELL.—J. P. Morton, March 14, June 14, September 14, December 14, L. Arbuckle, March 15, June 15, September 15, December 15, Boston 17, June 17, September 17, December 17, A. S. Auli, March 18, June 18, September 18, December 18.

FORDSVILLE,-J. W. Payne, P.-O. Fordsville BUFORD.—George H. Lauham. ROCK PORT.—A. P. Howard. ROSTNE -W. L. Miller, P.-O. Horse Branch Chomwell, -G.W. Martin, P.-O. Cromwell, CHURCH.

M. E. Church, South.—Services third and fourth sundays in each month. Rev. L. E. Campbell Pastor.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN.—Services, first Sunday and Sunday night, and Saturday night preceeding. Rev. Willis Smith pastor.

RETRIBUTION.

BY "THE DUCHESS."

VOL. XIII.

CHAPTER XVIII. "Where?" exclaims Millicent, as much taken aback as even Lady Valworth can

"Oh, you must have been mistaken" How could Nadine have a diamond cross of such value?"

"How, indeed! She said she had beer given it by that man to whom she is en gaged-Paul Annerley."
"A city clerk! Impossible! Degree aunt, you may be sure you have made a mistake. These French jewelries are so good nowadays. They copy so exactly the fine old designs that one is easily de-ceived when brought face to face with "No; I am not deceived," says Lady Valworth. Her tone is that of one who is sure of her argument. It is, indeed, so strong, so unlike the usually vacillating Lady Valworth, that Millicent is struck by it. "It is my cross—the one belonging to the diamond set Sir Thomas gave me

"But how could Nadine" ---"If you doubt it." said Lady Valworth, with sudden vehemence, "let me have an authority to prove that what I say is right. Call Sir Thomas. He is over there. Ask him." "Dear Lady Val-worth, but you know you would not like to distress Miss Roche," puts in Gerald Massarcene who has been perforce a listener to the disclosure and who now feels he must take a prominent part in the dis He is amply rewarded for his interference by an eloquent look from Millicent.

"True—true!" says Lady Valworth sighing. "I shall not speak to Sir Thomas now but by and by I shall call his attention to it. Good heavens! Milli-cent this may mean the recovery of the "Hardiy I think. These matters drift. By piecemeal they enter the window of respectable jelwelers, and all the research in the world will not bring to light the "Still, it gives hope. I shall examine Nadine, and..." "Not now-not until to-morrow night has gone over our heads!" entreats Millicent. eagerly, willing to spare Nadine a shock. "Why would you make unhappy a guest in your house on the very eve of Gran't's birthnight ball?" This is the very argument of all others to gain over Lady Valworth to her way of

"Yes. All should go smoothly for Granit," says Granit's mother thoughtfully. "And Nadine-she-she may not

"May not?" Millicent's eyes growdark with indignant reproach. "What can for her from wherever the thief sold it." you mean by such a speech as that? "A city clerk!—to buy that jewel!"

Nadine! Do you for one instant believe that she has had any part in this strange that she has had any part in this strange that the layer of the layer obtained it?

Ratiroad Commissioners-I. P. Thompson, scandal in connection with her.' 'I have hinted at nothing. I confess I am horribly distressed at seeing my own cross round another's neck. Do you are mistaken. It is probably only paste."

"Paste of that sort is expensive for a blame me for that?"

"Paste
In her distress at having brought down city elerk."

head, and her agitation at seeing again a portion of her lost diamonds, poor Lady Valworth is reduced to the very verge of despair.
"Be reasonable, Millicent. At least, grant me justice. I have said nothing to Nadine. Why should I, when I deem her innocent? Yet the connecting link be-tween me and the robber of my diamonds lies with her."

" I will not have her connected with this affair in any way," cries Millicent, hotly, tears in her eyes. "In seeking for your missing link, you will incriminate her, and terrify her and make her wretched. She turns almost defiantly upon Massa-she turns almost cenantly upon Massa-reene, who up to this has been silent.

"Do you think she has?"
"A thousand times no!" declares he gently. "Miss Roche and deceit of any kind secun to me as far apart as the poles. It stands to reason, too, that if she had known anything of the lost diamonds, she would hardly have worn them here." He is so carnest, so eager in his speech, that Millicent, with her eyes full of tears, lays her hand on his. This act repays him for many things, and makes him trebly Nadine's friend. And his argument, too goes home to Lady Valworth so that two causes are gained. If the latter had ever permitted herself to have any doubts, they now vanish into nothinguess, and only Nadine's pale, pure face rises before her. On such a face no guilt could lie!

"My dear, I meant nothing—nothing, so far as Nadine is concerned" she cries in agitation; "but, of course, it is only natural that I should desire the return of my diamonds—Sir Thomas' diamonds. If Nadine can help me to a solution of this difficulty, I shall forever hold her in my Millicent suddenly, if a little coldly.

"The man to whom she is engaged.
Paul Annerley she called him. The man she is going to marry."

she is going to marry."

'You present him to me in the light of either a dupe or a swindler."

'A dupe, most probably. He may, however, be of use to us in the discovery of the missing stones."
"It will distress Nadine very much to have her lover accused of being an out-sider in this affair." "I do not see that," says Massarcen quickly, who is as bonest as he is fulfilled of love. "If he can lend justice to its ends, why should he not be used? Miss Roche,

I am sure, would be the very last to prevent that; and so, when you come to think of it"—looking at Millicent—"would you." "Well—perhaps. But Nadine must not be teased now. Not to-night. To-mor-row night perhaps, when the ball is over —but not before."

"As you will," says Lady Valworth, with a sigh.
She would have liked to speak with Nadine now at once. "Is it a conspiracy?" asks Duran, coming up at this moment and touching Lady Valworth lightly or the arm. "You all look so solemn—eve a Miss Grey, who, as a rule, is gay as spring

"Oh!" exclaims Millicent; "it is this curious affair," she goes on; "auntic imagines she has seen to-night some of her lost diamonds. And where do you think?"

"In the servants' hall?" suggests be, Here. In this very room, wor by one of her guests."
"Impossible!" Something in her tone removes the smile from Duran's lips. He turns to Lady Valworth. "A guest" he says.

"Millicent is indiscreet," hesitates Lady

Valworth, casting a reproachful glance at her niece.
"Not that; only a little angry," returns Millicent, with a rather tremulous smile. "And why should what you have told us whisper of it in corners? We almost condemn her in so doing."

"Condemn! Who!" exclaims Duran Instinct, love, what you will, has led him to a knowledge of the truth.

"Nadine," replies Lady Valworth in a low tone, her eyes lowered. "Who has dared"— He checks him-self abruptly by an effort that renders his face as white and cold as marble. "You can scarcely allude to Miss Roche when speaking of this matter," he goes on, with a labored attempt to appear calm.

"Of Nadine? Yes. But it is all a mis-take," says Millicent. "Lady Valworth has seen a diamond cross around her neck. But one cross of that sort is so like another! I for my part feel sure it is a mere coincidence." "It is a point on which no doubt should be allowed to rest even for a moment," declares Duran, his brow darkening. He looks round him. "Miss Roche is at the other end of the room. Will you permit me to bring her here, Lady Valworth, and let you have a here, Lady Valworth, and let you have a closer examination of this cross? You, too, Miss Grey? You know the cross in question?" "I have seen it—yes," says Millicent, slowly. "If you think it bet-ter to lift this doubt from Lady Val-worth's mind so—bring Nadine here. But upon one thing I insist"—fixing her eyes imperious glance-"that no thought of our suspicion is betrayed to Nadine. will not have her hurt-offended"-She breaks off abruptly. She is agitated, and her eyes are troubled. Could she know it, her agitation, kindly.

womanly as it is -has made Duran her

"Certainly, no allusion should be made to-er-anything awkward," puts in Massareene hurriedly.

Duran has already gone in quest of Nadine; and presently returns, bringing her to where Lady Valworth, Millicent, and Gerald Massareene are standing.

The girl, flushed and lovely, forgetful for the moment of all her cruel future, and mindful only of the happy present that has given her Duran, advances toward the anxious, expectant group with smiling lips and wide glad eyes. Upon her reck the fatal cross is rising.

falling, glittering, as only the purest diamonds can. Millicent, her gaze fixed upon them, feels her heart contract. If not Lady Valworth's cross, it is unfortunately horribly like it. Some few words pass between her and Nadine. The latter is too full of the hour's passionate joy to heed the grief within her friend's eyes. But Duran reads it. Lady Valworth, after one swift glance at the girl's neck, lets her gaze sink to her fan, with which she persistently trifles until Nadine has gone by 'Well?" she says then, addressing Mil-

"I acknowledge it is like your crossso like that it may be yours; and, if so, no doubt this Paul Anneriey bought it story of which you speak!"

"My dear child, I would not hurt you in any way, as you well know—not even through another. And as for Nadine, you can see yourself how highly I esteem her."

"Highly indeed, when you can hint at scandal in coonsection with her."

Lady Valworth's low tone.
"How else could he have obtained it?
Who is this Paul Annerley? How should he have had access to your jewel case?"
Miss Grey's tone is somewhat impatient.
"That is what I cannot say. I only know the cross is mine," replies her aunt describe."

"It resembles it. That I admit. But

Her obstinacy angers Millicent. "Then in all probability, as I said be-fore, it is mere glass—Spanish crystal— what you will," she says, shrugging her shoulders. "I can well believe it is a bit of French jewelry. What I cannot believe is, that Nadine has had any intercourse with a thief."
"As you have said, time will tell," replies Lady Valworth, moodily.

CHAPTER XIX.

Time, in so far as it brings them to the next evening, has not told. The secret still lies within its ancient breast. It has still lies within its ancient breast. It has not yet disburdened itself, nor declared aught that might heal the anxiety that rages in the flighty, but kindly, heart of Millicent Grey.

Twenty times during the day she had approached Nadine with a determination to fire off all sorts of point blank batteries—meant to take the girl by storm—and twenty times she had been driven back, routed with great slaughter by the innocence of Nadine's lovely eyes. No: she cence of Nadine's lovely eyes. No; she could not ask a question that would make her friend unhappy, uneasy, dis-trustful of the man whom, if she did not So the day wore on, and eventide came and died, and now night is on them, and once again Nadine is standing before her glass—a mirror that teaches from ceiling to floor—regarding with anxions gaze the lovely form that gazes back at her. Once more she would be beautiful! Once more she would be pleasant in his His! In comparison with whom all the world is poor.

To-night her gown is blue. A pale electric blue, that throws into purer prominence the startling fairness of her neck and arms. She is lingering now, touching her dress here, and moving a flower there, debating all the while what orna-ment shall have the honor of lying on her pretty bosom. Some vague sense of evil had warned her against the cross. No, she would not wear that. It had distressed dear Lady Valworth, had whitened her face and made her kind lips stern; some old memory, sad and angry, had been brought to mind by it. Not only that first time when she had given way to an available of the control of the she had given way to an exclamation, but again that second time when he—

Maurice—Mr. Duran—had led her up to where she stood, Lady Valworth had seemed pained, sad, cold, unable to give her the kindly smile that, up to the wearing of that luckless cross, had ever greeted her. No; certainly she will not want to have a the luckless cross, and ever greeted her. No; certainly she will not "You are the lift on see th

There is the sapphire pendant. That lovely, sparkling thing that Paul, too, had given her, and that as yet has never graced her neck. True, he had warned her not to wear either it or the cross in common! He had got them through his business in some strange way he had failed to explain. They were valuable, too valuable to be worn publicly as yet, until he had made his fortune and hers. Too valuable to be worn at Mrs. Brand's, for example. He had, indeed, made her give her promise not to wear them at Mrs. Brand's, and she had faithfully kept lated on the fact that she would ever be here—in such a house as this. If he had known, he would have been the first to tell her to make herself look as charm-The very fact that she does not love him has made her the more particular in the matter of obeying him, and now a little pang shoots across her heart as she won-ders whether she hart been deaf to his desires when she hung that diamond cross last night around her neck. Certainly it had brought her no delight—no luck. It had hurt Lady Valworth, her kind friend. It had hurt Duran, too, in some odd way. She could not tell how exactly, but he had asked her one or two questions about it, and had refrained from praise of it, even when she laid it in

When you are constipated, with loss from loss in the why is that though the red case of them. But why is that the loss of appetite, headache, take one of Dr.
J. H. McLean's Little Liver and Kidble amount; enough at least to support him comfortably. He is a young man of good habits, sober, industrious, effsto good habits, sober, indus his palm for inspection.

No; not the cross. The sapphire pendant, rather. She lifts it from its case, and raises her arms above her head and glittering upon her lovely skin, she smiles softly to herself, and bends for-ward full of girlish delight at the beauty of it, and tells herself that Lndy Val-worth will be pleased to see her thus bedecked out to do honor to the home-coming of her son, Capt. Boyle—this dearly loved son, who, to Nadine, is as yet unknown, but of whom she has heard so

With a last lingering glance at the mirror, that gives her back her charms so truly, she leaves the room. As yet it is early for the arrival of guests, and as she enters the huge ball room she finds it almost descrited. The fiddlers are tuning their instruments in a monotonous lugu-The lights as yet are dim, and Nadine can scacely see them. She walks quickly in their direction, her heart beating giadly with a sense of youth and joy, that the best so easily killed, and it continued to the savage or semi-civilized alone, but intellectual, refined and civilized man comgadly with a sense of youth and joy, that the best so easily killed, and it continued to the savage or semi-civilized alone, but intellectual, refined and civilized man comgadly with a sense of youth and joy, that As she draws nearer the laughter she can see that her two or three have developed into a group. Duran is here, and Gerald Massarcene: Mrs. Brand and Millicent.

As Nadine comes up to them some of the servants turn up the lights to the

"Take her away-anywhere! Into the next room, she says in a tone of suppressed but passionate command to Dupressed but passionate command a nervous distressed air all the night has been regarded as a model fiances by all sthan to London, where it was purber world. Plainly, she is fretting for her recreant lover. She has more feeling than they had given her credit for. She converted into a mastodon by Professor everything created by God Almighty—

Owen who at once recognized its true. is not the heartless, soulless creature they had imagined! Yet her thoughts have never wandered to Granit; they have been centered on the pretty, happy creature, who, with the stolen sapphires lying on her bosom, has been blissfully unconscious of the gathering storm that is so soon to break upon her.

Duran had made it a first care to learn the cause of Miss Gravit, design to get rid.

Owen, who at once recognized its true in all the hand!

What is political a lit is in gliorance.

Miss Edna Beam, a highly accomplished young lady of Daviess county, exists the Duran had made it a first care to learn the cause of Miss Grey's desire to getrid of Nadine as soon as her glance fell upon her in the ball room. What he had been told since by Millicent had led him at once to a knowledge of the truth. He was already aware of the suspicion about the diamond cross worn by Nadine the night before. It is now impossible to him to disbelieve but that this lover of Nadine's —this Paul Annerley—had something to disbelieve but that this lover of Nadine's —this Paul Annerley—had something to do with the robberies both of the diamonds from Valworth, and the famous sapphires from Park lane. If this be true! If this be proved! He is angry with himself for the wild thrill of joy that rushes through every pulse, as this thought suggests itself and takes root within his breast. If it prove true!

Why then Nadine will be free! This man, Annerley, will be compelled to fly man, Annerley, will be compelled to fly from the face of the law, and she will be left behind for him—Duran—and for tongues who had no love for her? A thousand times no. Be the man falsely suspected, or be he in reality the one who has stolen the jewels, it is impossible that Nadine should be left to learn of ble that Nadine should be left to learn of the suspicion resting upon him from strangers. He—will tell her.

He has led her into a small conserva-tory leading off the tea room, which, being rather public, has been deserted by those desirous of uttering or hearing tender passages. The upper end of it, overlooking in daytime a garden be-neath, is quite removed from the gaze of those in the room ontside, and Duran, as Nadine sinks upon a low couch, seats himself beside her.

himself beside her.

A dim lamp, shaded to a subdued pink, sheds a warm but indistinct light around. The perfume of the dying roses fills the air. From far away the music comes to them—rising, falling, swelling, fainting, until all the night seems full Nadine, stooping toward him, lays her hand on his.

"You are troubled?" she says, softly.
"I can see it in your eyes. Something is but it is for you." he answers, gently.

"For me" A little startled look creeps

"What a strange question," cries she, paling. "It was given me—it was a present from Paul Annerley.

"And the diamond cross you wore last night—he gave you that also?

"Yes: he gave me both. She has grown very white, and her large eyes are filled with a painful uncertainty. "Why do you question me about them?" she says.

"Is it strange that I should have such pretty things? I did not want them—I do not care for them. But why is it strange?"

"Mand the diamond cross you wore last night—he gave you that also?

Fits: All fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after first day's use. Marvelous cures. Treatise and $2.00 trial bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch St. Philla. Pa.

When you are constipated, with loss

'Where did he get them?" "Ah! explain yourself!" implores she, rising to her feet and drawing back from him. "Your face, your voice, betray you! There is something terrible yet to said. Say it!"

"There is this," says Duran, rising also. "The diamond cross you wore last night was stolen from Lady Valworth; the sap-phires you wear to-night are part of the sapphire set that was taken from Miss Grey in Park lane!" (CONTINUED NEXT WEEK.)

Scientific Hoaxes.

kissable mouth, that would fain say,
"Am I not good to look at, dear, my love?" yet dreads to say it; the bent, yet proud little head, the tender, longing smile, all appeal to him. His hand closes upon hers. She is his at this moment, whatever other forlorn times the years
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he feward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he leads her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he leads her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he leads her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he leads her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he leads her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class he forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand class her forward is
may hold for him and her, and with the cause hand constant in the paws, sil misshould be no classes save the bood and be hind legs. It certainly conveyed the notion of "a hideous diabolical
To-day the world is agitated by temproved in the paws, sil misshould be no classes save the bood and beautiful the hould be no classes save the bood and beautiful the hold be no classes save the bood and beautiful the hold be no classes save the bood and beautiful the hold beautiful to him and her hold legs. It certainly conveyed
the notion of "a hideous diabolical where the hold is a high class her forward is the hind legs. It certainly conveyed
the notion of "a hideous diabolical
the notion of "a hideous diabolical the notion of the hold her forward is the hind legs. It certainly conveyed the notion of

In 1840 "Dr." Koch, a German charlatan, created a great sensation by an-book of Job, that refuge of perplexed What is the truth but the plished young lady of Daviess county, accompanied by her cousin, Mr. Elliot, is visiting their uncle, Mr. John Me-Cormick, near Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Levi Williams, who has been ill for some time, is convalescent. Uncle Sam Henry is about to loose one of his eyes from neuralgia. Miss Lula Cox, after a protracted Illness of typhoid fever, is again able to resume her school, The recent high waters have played ad havoe with the bridges in this community, especially Barnett's creek bridge. The bridge that spans Hanley's Branch has been repaired. It would be a great save both in time and expense if we had iron bridges. GRAZIA.

Farmers. Send 10 cents to the Prickly Ash Bitters Co., St Louis, Mo., and get a copy of "the Horse Trainer," paratus, nothing more than can be found in any stable in the country—a and rakes to look upon and watch over, rope and a strap. Every one handling and what changes shall be made? horses should have a copy. 11 1m What remedy shall we apply?

Wonderful Cure. Retail Druggist of Rome, Ga., say: We never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. back to monarchies, aristocracies, or There have been some wonderful republics, even if they fall; for, it will cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced found wanting. consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's by all means.

into her lovely face.

"Tell me—tell me exactly, says Duran, leaning forward so that he can see her face more clearly; "tell me, for your own sake, how you became the possessor of that sapphire heart that lies upon your tively cures piles, or no pay required, lit is guaranteed to give perfect satisfacneck. The best solve in the world for cuts, neck. "What a strange question," cries she, tion, or money refunded. Price 25c.

CUNDIFF'S LOGIC.

What New Form of Government Next --- Some Social and Political Evils--- What Shall be the Remedy for Them.

The student of history, the political obilosopher, the economist and the statesman, to say nothing of the lesser lights of thought and observance, de see and bear many evils in society and My grandfather's clock was too large for the in government as now organized. whether they be in monarchies, republics or despotism. For faults exist mais were entirely extinct, and that in all government, and crime is found one, but many missing links. From Lust, seduction, avaries, bribery his recognition of that fact the science robbery, murder abounds everywhere brious way, and one or two people are his recognition of that fact the science robbety, murder abounds everywhere laughing at the lower end of the room. If paleontology may be said to date. These sins are not confined to the sav-to appear at intervals. As late as 1835 Why does he? Is it possible that the we find a New England medical pro- Bible has failed to homanize and essor writing as if it were an unques- make just the race of man? Or is it tionable fact. The giant theory ling- clear that mankind has universally dered still lenger, and even yet cannot be nied the dictates of justice, forbidde considered entirely extinct among the equality, and destroyed the county of fullest, and quite a glow of brightness is considered entirely extinct among the equality, and destroyed the county of fung upon the room. Duran steps for unlearned. The dictum that the super-government and society naturally dustries of one age are but the science to all races of the human family? Car of preceding ages receives ample con- it not be shown that not only is this so, in welcome. In reality, the soft sweet of preceding ages receives ample conit not be shown that not only is this so, beauty of her has entered into him and firmation in the history of this subject.

but individuals are forced into classes stricken him dumb. The lamps are shinNot longer ago than 1846 a mastedon and distinctions are made, not only for stricken him dumb. The lamps are shin-ing upon her starry eyes, her red parted lips, her face so like a flower. The dainty, shy glance, that half bespeaks the praise and half decries it; the lovely such classes and such distinctions should eager hand clasp he leads her forward to where the lamps shine clearest—to where all may see how fair his love can be.

where the lamps shine clearest—to where all may see how fair his love can be. sion in the Southwest at that time, it not poverty, woe and want great, and He turns to make some gay remark to Millicent, still holding Nadine's hand, but a glance at Miss Grey's face checks him. She has grown positively livid. She was full of laughter just a minute ago, but now mirth has died from her and her lips are all set and stern, her color chastly. averted if all society is organized right-whom she alludes—her eyes are riveted upon Nadine's neck, where the sapphire pendant is resting calmly. Duran, who is a man quick to understand, scenting danger in the air for her he loves draws Nadine aside and presently takes her out of the room. A little too late, however.

Mrs. Brand too had seen and recognized the sapphires!

Into a semiciral and converted the semiciral and converted the sapphires!

Into a semiciral and converted the semiciral and converted the sapphires!

Into a semiciral and converted the semiciral and converted the sapphires.

Introduce—her eyes are riveted from the State where it was found, from the State where it was found obsoluted.

It turned cut, however, to be nothing and monding their caut, forgetting, from th the sapphires!

The guests have all arrived, the ball is at its height. Yet still the hero of it is absent. There is, however, a midnight train that will in all probability bring sickle-shaped tusks and then peacefully have a filter than the sapphires. It is not founded on truth in conformity with the eternal laws of the universe—that nothing can present that nothing can present that will in all probability bring sickle-shaped tusks and then peacefully ural death, but the right treatment.

The decreased had been clothed in a says Lady Valworth, with a rather wan smile, who is feeling hurt and disappointed.

"It must. He has never failed meyet," slumbered on the bosom of the waves. Like the Siberians, he found interesting work with which we are afflicted come from injustice which makes us unjust. The deceased bad been clothed in a black silk dress, which was seemingly in a good state of preservation. The > converted into a mastodon by Professor everything created by God Almighty - had it become that it took the united site Court-h Owen, who at once recognized its true in all the natural elements, and in the effects of ten men to remove it from its political equality, and the golden rule? vertently chipped off the body, which > > and religious societies are formed But it is. It may be interesting in this do they materially abote these evils, or connection to state that Miss Dennis get at the root of them? both of a moral and social as well as ut of water to the system before death a revolutionary nature. Men and west would be conducive to so remarkable at men are laboring to stop, decrease or change,

Kulghts of Labor -- and Socialists,

A complete system, teaching how to break and train horses in a mild and gentle way, requiring no elaborate ap-

Should we not blast monopoly, and establish common possession of the laud? W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and This is a deep question, one not com- neighbors and friends living in Graymonly understood, and against which son to accept his grateful thanks for Arnica Saive for two years. Have speed it, socialism or no socialism! Ohio and Breekenridge. Undoubtedly, the world will never go

> W. H. C. Рипьрот, Ку., March 23,1887.

not take that which has been tried and

For sale by J. W. Ford. A Good Word For John.

least by the flings of a thoughtless press. and soun which accumulates on the It is true that he has been unsuccessful eye balls, subdues inflammation, coolse Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after first day's use. Marvelous cures Treatise and $2.00 trial bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch St. Phila. Pa.

The structure that he has been unsuccessful in his recent love affair, but he is not the first young man who has been "left" along this line. He is not the worthers along this line. The pressure of the press are the structure of the pressure pleased to call him but is on the other house held which cause burns, cuts, When you are constipated, with loss hand beir to an estate of no inconsiderabusiness qualities enough in fact to make a support for himself and moth-er for several years past. And this too with the *pectre of a gaunt disease shadowing his life such as doubtless would have caused some of his detractors to quall and falter. "Oh, the rarity of Christian charity under the sun."

GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK.

So it stood ninety years on the floor; It was taller by half than the old man him

Though it weighed not a pennyweight It was bought on the morn of the day that he was born, And was always his pleasure and pride;

But it stopped short-never to go again-When the old man died. Ninety years, without slumbering-tick tock, tick, tock,

His life seconds numbering-tick, tock

It stopped short-never to go again-When the old man died. Watching its pendulum swing to and fro. Many hours had he spant while a boy; And in entithood and manhood, the clock seemed to know,

And to share both his grief and his joy; For it a ruck twenty-four when be entered the door.
With a blooming and beautiful bride; But stopped short—never to go again— When the old man died.

My grandfather said that of those he could Not a servant so faithful he found For, It wasted no time, it had but one desire-At the close of each week to be wound.

t was kept in its place-not a frown upo its fice, And its hands never hung by its side: fut it stopped short-never to go again-When the old man died.

rang an alarm in the dead of the night-

An alarm that for years had been dumb; And we knew that his spirit was plum That his hour of departure had come, Still the clock kept the time, with a soft and muffled chime.

As we silently stood by his side;

But it stopped short-never to go again-When the old man dled.

every human being the heritage of natural right is in ural right? And this natural right is in resting place. While this was being What is justice, but perfect social and accomplished, a small piece was inad-It is in view of the drunkenness, the is in the possession of undertaker ignorance, the crime, the poverty that Kischler. It has all the appearance exists that temperance, educational of hard fliety limestone, which in fact died of dropsy, although it is not known There is agits tion all over the world, whether the unnatural accumulation miligate seduction, greed of gain, cruelty, inebriety, disease, war. fraud, role bery, crime, and even Monopoly.

But how few recognize the fact that Monopoly, and especially land monopoly, is the prelific source of all the sine of the star Clinton H Wolker, in the 24 h year in the calendar.

In Russia there are Nibilists, in Ger.

of her age. Mrs. Walker was born many Socialists, in Ireland the Land League, and in the United States the Ayril 15, 1863, and was a daughter of Kulghts of Labor-- and Socialists.

Something will come out of all these.

Allen and Jolis A. Dalton. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and HARTFORD. Will it be the smelloration of the in-boring classes, and the saving of the nations? Meanwhile, the world stands Grove, Onto county. She leaves a aghast at the spectacle of armed Europe hus and three children to mourn

> Farewell my busband, dear, farewell, Adlen, farewell to thee; And you my dear children all,

Farewell, farewell to you. Mr. Walker not only wishes hi have been selling Dr. King's New Dis- there is a deep-rooted prejudice. But their kindness during the sickness of overy, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's land reform is setting in, and may God his wife, but his many friends living in An Enterprising, Reliable House. Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro, can always be relied upon, not only to carry in We shall revolutionize, and advance stock the best of everything, but to secure the Agency for such articles as have well-known merit, and are popu-If your kidneys are inactive, you will the reputation of being always enterprising feel and look wretched, even in the most cheerful society, and mealancholy on the folliest occasions. Dr. J. H. King's New Discovery for consumption, will set you right again. Si per bottle. For sale by J. W. Ford.

Take the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always enterprising and ever reliable. Having secured the agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, will sell it on a positive gurantee. It will surely care any and every affection of throat, lungs, and chest, and to show who are ambitions and cuterprising will not work and the standard point of the people, thereby sustaining the return to us, and we will send you free, something you from the stant you in business which will start you in business which will start you for the work and five at home. Either were all ages. Something new, that just come of the granular not needed. This is one of the granular not needed. This is one of the granular network and the reputation of being always enterprising and ever reliable. Having secured the agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, all ages. Something you in business which will send you free, something you in business which will send you free. by with the people, thereby sustaining feel and look wretched, even in the ing and ever reliable. Having secured most cheerful society, and mealancholy the agency for the celebrated Dr. on the folliest occasions. Dr. J. H. Kirg's New Discovery for consumption. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm, will sell it on a positive gurantee. It McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm, will sell it on a positive gurantee. It will set you right again. SI per bottle, will surely cure any and every affection of throat, lungs, and chest, and to show will set you right again. SI per bottle, of throat, lungs, and chest, and to show will set you right again. 7-3m of throat, lungs, and chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a trial bottle free.

JOHN JABINE is too well known bere for his character is to be affected in the ening Eye Salve; it removes the film

One Copy Six Months, One Copy Four Months,.... se No deduction from these rates un-

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

THE WEEKLY HERALD ALWAYS BE PAID IN ADVANCE

AND IS AS POLLOWS:

def any circumstances. Sent to my peet-office in the United States for the above price, and changed when destred

Child Birth Easy!

The time has come when the terri-ble agony of this critical period in woman's life can be avoided. A distinguished physician, who spent 44 years in this branch of practice, left to child-bearing woman this legacy.
THE MOTHER'S FRIEND, and to-day there are thousands of women who, having used this remedy before confinement, rise up and call his name biessed. We can prove all we claim by living witnesses, and anyone in-terested can call, or have their husbands do so, and see the original let-

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO. CHAS. M. PENDLETON

HARTFORD, KY.

All eruggists sell it. For particulars addre

Will practice his profession in all the courts of Ohio and adjoining counties and in Court of Appeals. Special attention given to collections.

Also Notary Public for Ohio county. J. T. HOWARD, Attorney at Law OWENSBORO, KY.

WILL practice his profession to all the Courts of Daviss and adjoining coun-ties and in the Court of Appeals. special at-tention given to Collections. B-61-ly H. P. TAYLOR,

Hartford, Ky.

Office North Side or Public Square. E. D. GUFFY.

AttorneyatLaw HARTFORD, :: KENTUCKY. SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO THE

H. B. KINSOLVING. ATTORNEY: AT: LAW

WALKER & HUBBARD.

Wm. F. GREGORY. ATTORNEY

J. EDWIN ROWE

C. W. MASSIE,

OF APPEALS.

WILL PRACTICE IN THE COURTS OF

AND COLLECTORS. MARTFORD, : : : KENTUCKY.

DATRONAGE solicited. Best acco H. A. SMITH, Prop.

HARTFORD, KY.

At Law. HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio adjoining counties. Special attentive to Criminal Practice, Settlemen Decedent's Estates and Collections. Profession of Sentence of the Profession of the P

Attorney at Law

HILL & MCHENRY

WE GIVE SPECIAL ATTENTION TO COLLECTIONS.

